Public Health Responsibility Deal

Launched in 2011, aims to tap into the potential for businesses and other influential organisations to make a significant contribution to improving public health.

Organisations signing up to the Responsibility Deal commit to taking action voluntarily to improve public health through their responsibilities as employers.

The aim of the Health at Work Network is to find ways to help employers use the workplace to improve the health of their employees.

Nine health at work pledges:

- H1. Chronic conditions guide
- H2. Occupational health standards
- H3. Board Reporting on health and well-being (Board-level engagement)
- H4. Healthier staff restaurants
- H5. Smoking cessation/Respiratory health
- H6. Staff Health checks
- H7. Mental Health in workplace
- H8. Young persons’ health at work
- H9. Domestic violence
- H10 Construction/civil engineering
