

East of England Annual Finance Summit

15 June 2017, Girton College, Huntingdon Road, Cambridge, CB3 0JG

Agenda

09.30	Registration, refreshments and case study sign up
10.00	Welcome and Introductions	Cllr Richard Wenham, Deputy Leader and Executive Member for Corporate Resources, Central Bedfordshire Council
10.05	The Future of Local Government Finance	Cllr Alan Waters, Leader, Norwich City Council
10.35	A Battle of Wills Between Local and Central Government	Cliff Dalton, Head of Local Government, CIPFA
11.00	New Local Government Mutual	James Alexander, Lead Adviser - New Local Government Mutual, Local Government Association
11.30	Refreshment break
11.45	Case Studies - Session 1 (delegates will be asked to sign up to sessions on the day)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • PHILIS (Port Health Interactive Live Information System) (CHAPEL BOX) Richard Jacobs, Port Health Manager, Suffolk Coastal Port Heath Authority • Pan Essex Compliance and Counter Fraud Scheme (OLD HALL) Andy Craig, Founder and CEO and Tom Medhurst, Product Director, Vigilant Applications
12.30	Networking lunch
13.15	Case Studies - Session 2 (delegates will be asked to sign up to sessions on the day)
	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Maximising Revenue Opportunities (CHAPEL BOX) Chris Bradley, Head of Commercial Development, East Hampshire District Council • Social Impact Bonds - Pros and Cons? (OLD HALL) Cllr Alison Thomas, Deputy Leader, Norfolk County Council and Eliska Cheeseman, Programme Manager, Norfolk County Council • Accounting for Cloud (RECEPTION ROOM) John Thornton, Director, E-ssential Resources
14.00	Comfort break and reconvene in main room
14.10	How to Build Commercial Expertise into Local Government	Sam Rowbury, Director of Policy and Public Sector, Crown Commercial Services
14.40	Councils Go Global - International Trading Partners	Cllr Stephen Canning, Digital Specialist and Member for Bocking, Essex County Council
15.10	Closing Remarks	Cllr Richard Wenham, Deputy Leader and Executive Member for Corporate Resources, Central Bedfordshire Council
15.15	Conference close	