

Bringing Ideas to Life... The East Suffolk Community Partnership Annual Forum

3 March 2023, 09.00 – 14.00

Trinity Park, Felixstowe Road, Bucklesham, IP3 8UH

Programme

09.00	Registration, refreshments and an opportunity to visit marketplace
09.30	Introduction to the day and update on progress of the East Suffolk Community Partnerships Steve Gallant, Chairman, Community Partnership Board and Leader of East Suffolk Council
09.40	Keynote speaker: 'Moving forwards after Covid-19 changed the world' Anna Crispe, Consultant in Public Health, Assistant Director, Knowledge, Intelligence & Evidence, Suffolk County Council
10.10	Introduction to workshops and seminars
10.15	Time for everyone to move into breakout sessions
10.25	Pre-chosen workshops and seminars <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • What else can we do to 'Ease the Squeeze' on East Suffolk residents? (Nacton Room) • The challenge of Rural Proofing – and how to address those challenges (Room 2) • Preventing mental ill health in East Suffolk (Room 1) • Combating the shortage of care and support needs through the creation of Community Micro-Enterprises (Foxhall Room) • Youth Matters (Bucklesham Room) • The power of neighbourhood communication groups in building connection and encouraging civic engagement (Main Plenary)
11.25	Refreshments and a chance to re-visit the marketplace
11.55	Time for everyone to move into breakout sessions
12.00	Pre-chosen workshops and seminars <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • #VoluntarySoVital (Room 1) • The importance of reconnecting people to place (Main Plenary) • Your Health, Your Community, Your Say! (Nacton Room) • Use it or lose it? Ideas for improving and sustaining rural transport in East Suffolk (Foxhall Room) • Collaborating with young people on environment and climate change challenges (Bucklesham Room) • Funding: Snakes & Ladders! (Room 2)
13.00	Networking lunch and a final opportunity to visit the marketplace
14.00	Conference close

Sponsored by:

Net Zero Partner:

Supported by:

-drink-feast-shop-east-

