

Rachel Wright

Born at the Right Time

- Director/Founder Born at the Right time
- Author of The Skies I'm Under and Shattered
- Winner Blogger making a difference 2018
- Finalist RCN Nursing Awards 2020
- Finalist National Learning disability and Autism Awards 2022
- Host of The Skies We're Under podcast

“

Like a frantic and incoherent supermarket sweep,
I gather instructions from numerous practitioners until dazed and bewildered.

I stand knowing I don't have the time, energy or capacity to pay for all my duties as a Parent Carer.

Rachel Wright

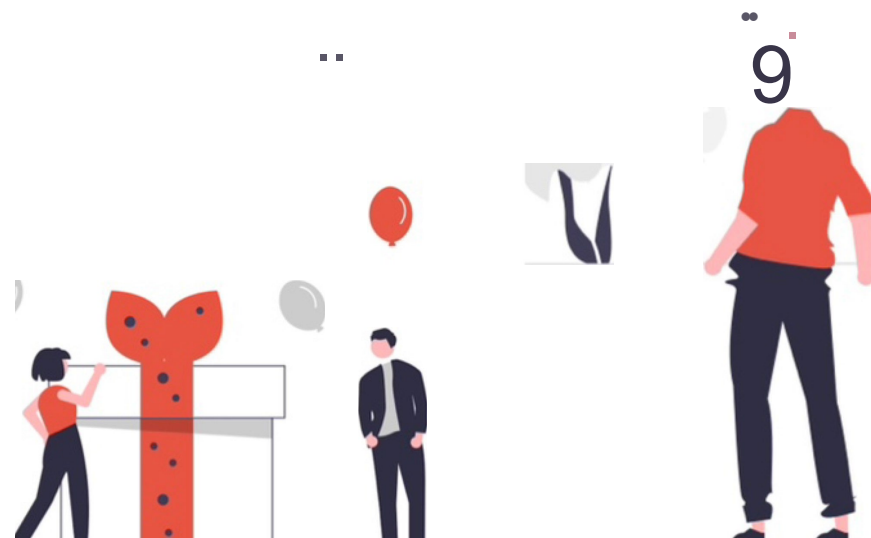

! !

We were part of a game of pass the parcel but unfortunately the music never stopped.

No-one was sure about the collective part they played and they most certainly underestimated the impact of their contribution to the bigger picture, 'William's life!'

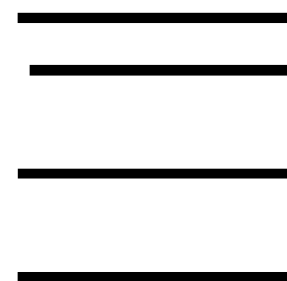

Sharon Goddard

“

The difference between being someone people work with versus an item on a to-do list is profound

~~World~~
Work

Bridging the Gap

2005 Eldest son

2007 Son 2

2015 Son 3

2015 The Skies I'm Under

Born at the Right Time Launched

2021 Peer Leadership Program

What the Peer Leadership offered

- 1. Information and insights
- 2. Good connections and growing network
- 3. Learned from the trainers and fellow delegates
- 4. Worked with my capacity
- 5. Micro and Macro ways I can make a difference

What is Born at the Right Time?

Born at the Right Time's vision is to create a world where families of people with complex disabilities are valued and supported to thrive in a community where they belong.

BORN at the RIGHT TIME

Bridging the gap

Follow me on FB or Twitter
@BornatRightTime

rachel@bornattherighttime.com

Support #Dontcallmemum

www.bornattherighttime.com

